SUBJECT: Change in the State Classification Plan

STATE PAROLE BOARD AND JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMISSION

The Hearing Officer title series was previously assigned to the unclassified service. Senate Bill No. 2521, an amendment to N.J.S.A. 30:4-123.48, was signed on January 12, 2006. It provides that hearing officers who have been employed by the State Parole Board for a period of at least one year prior to the effective date of the amendment shall have permanent career service status. Seniority in the career service will be awarded from the date of original appointment to the title of Hearing Officer.

Hearing Officers are employed by both the State Parole Board and the Juvenile Justice Commission. Merit System Practices and Labor Relations has advised that the applicability of the amendment was limited to employees of the State Parole Board.

A separate set of unclassified titles is concurrently requested for use by the Juvenile Justice Commission. This action will preclude the potential of inadvertently conferring classified status to incumbents for whom this action was unintended.
